30,000 And Democrats By Small Margin

(By Associated Press)

Portland, Maine, September 13.—Maine men and women went to the polls today for the election of state and county officers, legislature and congressmen after having been told throughout the campaign that the eyes of the nation were upon them to give the traditional indication of political sentiment in the country in the presidential election.

The weather was clear and indications pointed to a heavy vote. Both parties expressed confidence in the result.

The Republicans claimed victory by a 30,000 plurality. The Democrats indulged in no figures. The issues have been national, with chief emphasis placed on the league of nations.

For the first time, women voted in this state. Both parties claimed the support of this new element.

For governor, Frederick H. Parkhurst, of Bangor, Republican, is opposed by B. G. McIntire, of Norway, Democrat.

WIFE OF CORK'S LORD MAYOR SNAPPED ON LEAVING HIS PRISON

Mrs. Terence MacSwiney leaving Brixton prison.

Mrs. Terence MacSwiney, wife of the dying lord mayor of Cork, has been a frequent visitor at his prison during his long hunger strike. In a recent interview she said: "Yes, I am positive he will see his task through. Of course, it is only his conviction that he is fighting for an ideal that has enabled him to survive. I am fully reconciled to hearing of his death. His battle is mine, for it is one I took on myself when I married him three years ago, while he was in England under a deportation order." Mrs. MacSwiney is a slender, blue-eyed woman of youthful appearance.

TWO DIE
IN ROSS
COUNTY
TEMPEST

Chillicothe, September 12.—When a "cloudburst" swept over the country south of Adelphi, a village in Ross county about 6:30 p. m. Saturday, an automobile and surrey, filled with people returning from the K. of P. Fair at that village, were overwhelmed by the waters of Pike Run, and two persons were drowned.

THE DEAD

MISS REBECCA PRICHARD, 17.
EBB SPEAKMAN, 45
Alza Moore, 50 and his son, James, 25, who were in the surrey with those drowned, escaped, as also did Clell Clark, Circleville, driver and said to have been the sole occupant of the automobile.

Wall of Water

According to the story told by residents of Adelphi, those in the surrey drove into Roger's Cut, about three miles south of Adelphi. About the middle of the cut, they came upon an automobile stalled in the center of the road, which here is so narrow the surrey could not pass.

Unable to pass the machine, the party waited. Suddenly a wall of water, estimated by Young Moore to have been 10 feet deep, swept down upon them, and in an instant all were overwhelmed.

Clark is said to have seen the water coming, and yelled for the others to look out. The two Moores jumped from the surrey and ran up the bank while the others were overwhelmed by the water.

Bodies Carried Far

The body of the Pritchard girl was found about three-quarters of a mile below the scene of the accident, while that of Speakman was carried more than a mile and a half.

The tragedy caused a furore of excitement among those who were attending the fair, which had been in progress more than a week. Many families had become separated, some leaving for home because of the threatening rain the others determining to stick it out a while longer. As news of the drowning spread, many became hysterical, as it was not until nearly midnight that the identity of the dead was established.

First reports of the accident had it that nearly a dozen persons were missing, and losses were counted again and again in an effort to check up. At an early hour this morning, satisfied that all had been accounted for.

During the summer when the creek is at low stage, hundreds of sightseers use the road daily on their way to ash cave.

The storm did thousands of dollars worth of damage to fruit and corn in the region near Adelphi. Rain fell for more than an hour.

BACK IN
CHICAGOOutlaw Strikers on "Vacation"
Since Last March Being Received by Road OperatorsReturn Without Granting Of Demands Made Upon Railroad Managers

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, September 13.—Railroad managers today were receiving back at work the striking switchmen, yardmen and enginemen in the Chicago switching district, following their vote to go back to their jobs after being on a "vacation" since last March.

The strikers, estimated to number 3,000, will return without the granting of their demand for restoration of seniority rights.

Railroad managers refused to consider this demand, pointing out that they could not do so without coming into conflict with the Railroad Brotherhoods, which had sought to keep their membership at work.

Railroad officials saw in the decision to end the strike the termination of their labor troubles, which have handicapped the roads almost since the time they were released from federal control.

Original Plans For Speaking
Tour

(By Associated Press)

New York, September 13.—There will be no "barn storming" in connection with projected speaking trips of Senator Harding. Will H. Hays said here today in commenting on a report from Marion that the Republican candidate would travel from coast to coast.

"There has been absolutely no change in our plans as announced a month ago," Mr. Hays said.

He expressed doubt Senator Harding would go farther west than Omaha, Nebraska. He said he was not at liberty to announce what cities would be visited adding this explanation must come from Marion or Chicago.

With the exception of New York the rule will be "one speech in a state" Mr. Hays declared.

60 YEARS OLD

(By Associated Press)

Washington, September 13.—General Pershing celebrated at his home here today his sixtieth birthday and incidentally the anniversary of the second day of the battle of St. Mihiel, the first all American major offensive against the German armies.

Only members of his staff and a few guests attended the celebration.

Mr. Wilson stated restrictions of credits and general financial stringency have forced many producers to market their live stock prematurely with resulting losses in money and in production.

COX PLANChanges In Financial Policy
Advocated By Governor In Speech At Portland, OregonPoints To Reclamation As Sample of What League Of Nations Would Allow

(By Associated Press)

Portland, Oregon, September 13.—Outlining details of his financial policy, which includes proposals for a budget commissioner to act as an executive assistant to the president and declaring the need for constructive measures for the development of Alaska, Governor James M. Cox delivered an address here today.

After discussing the league of nations in terms of material results to the nation, and pointing out no readjustment worth while can come under reactionary guidance, Governor Cox said:

"I have been amazed at the results achieved in our irrigation and reclamation projects, some of which I have seen for the first time, and I am appalled by the thought that selfish partisanship in the United States senate holding up by the heels the civilization of the world, would make it necessary for us to continue the building of big armaments when the amount necessary to expend in that program would increase the productive acreage of the United States by hundreds of thousands of square miles."

CLINTONS SCORE TEN RUNS WHEN ATHLETICS BLOW

Airtight Ball is Played For Six Innings But Clintons Score Ten Times in Two Frames on Home Ground.

Neim Meyer Does Not Appear in Lineup, But Hurls For the Goldes at Jeffersonville.

After playing airtight ball for six innings Washington Athletics blew into small bits at Wilmington Sunday afternoon and the Clintons won 14 to 1.

Marcus who was on the hill for the Athletics was very wild and was winged safely eleven times while Earl Gaines, of Hillsboro, pitching for the Clintons, granted but 3 safeties. But was not fault of Marcus that the local athletes were so ignely treated by their host. One earned run was all the scorer was able to chalk up for Clintons. All in all Washington weighed in with five errors.

For six innings the Athletics had bow up bravely before the enemy's attack on the margin of a 1 run lead. With the game airtight, both teams playing fast ball this run looked big as a traffic sign.

Things began to happen in the seventh and eighth innings and a total of ten runs went across in the two frames.

To fill positions caused by the absence of two players, Frohnoefer and Eiselsstein, of Columbus, were in the Washington lineup.

It had been announced by the Athletic management before the game that Jake Neim Meyer, of the Cincinnati Goldes would pitch to the Athletics but he was not on hand but pitched for the Goldes at Jeffersonville. Jake told Jeffersonville fans who had heard of his intention to play with the Athletics that he had not signed any contract and had not been officially notified of any action in signing him.

It was the first time that Marcus had pitched for several weeks and he was out of form and very wild.

YELLOW BUD WINS AT NEW HOLLAND

Old Rivals Meet and Result is Scappy Contest With Bud in the Best of the Argument.

Yellow Bud, with Lurton Pinto, won from the New Holland team at New Holland Sunday afternoon, 10 to 2 in a game that was threatened with disruption several times before the nine innings had been played.

Keen interest is always displayed between these teams, old rivals of several seasons. Although the score was entirely one-sided Sunday yet the game was hard fought all the way.

Dawson started for New Holland but was nicked for six runs in the first inning before he could be replaced by Don Sollars. Yellow Bud had already done damage and Holland was not able to overcome the big lead.

Battery for Yellow Bud was Pinto and Watt, and for New Holland, Dawson, Sollars, and Towell.

Cause Of Impure Blood

Your Druggist Has the Best Remedy.

It has been truly said that the seat of most disease is in the blood; and poor thin, devitalized blood may be caused by a weakness of the digestive organs, an accumulation of waste matter in the system, an inactive liver or lack of exercise.

Whatever the cause the best remedy known is Vinol, the cod liver and iron strength-creator, blood and body-builder.

Vinol is not a patent medicine as all its ingredients are named on every package and it contains just the elements needed to enrich the blood enabling it to carry strength and vitality to every part of the body. Your druggist sells it, therefore except no substitute.—Advt.

CARDINAL ASKS ALL WOMEN TO CAST BALLOT

Was Opposed to Suffrage But Since Granted Wants All To Vote.

Cardinal Gibbons Asks Thoughtful Consideration Before Balloting.

(By Associated Press) Baltimore, September 13.—Now that women have been given the vote they should exercise this privilege, "not only as a right but as a duty," Cardinal Gibbons said to newspaper men today.

"While I always have been opposed to woman suffrage because I felt suffrage would withdraw them from the more delicate and sacred pursuits of home life," said the Cardinal, "now that they have been given the vote I urge upon all of them the exercise of that suffrage not only as a right but as a duty. It is their duty both to register and vote and especially the coming presidential election they should vote for the candidate who will, in their opinion, contribute steps to the material and social progress of the state."

SUNDAY SERVICES CLOSE PASTORATE

The last Sunday of Rev. William Boynton Gage's ministry in the First Presbyterian Church, was marked by very large audiences both morning and evening and services of much impressiveness.

Rev. Gage preached two excellent sermons and expressed deep regret in serving the church relations of the past seven years, saying that the affection he felt for the people of Southern Ohio would always be warmly cherished.

At the morning service Rev. Gage stated that he had asked for release from the church of Aberdeen, S. Da., which call he had accepted and if this was given, expected to leave the ministry to enter another field of unlimited opportunity.

At the close of the morning service the entire congregation passed to the front of the auditorium to say goodbye to Rev. Gage, many tears accompanying the informal farewell.

With the realization of the loss of the pastor, was mingled much personal sorrow in the loss of the friend. People also lingered after the evening service to say goodbye.

Upon Mrs. Gage's return from the East, probably the last of the week, Rev. and Mrs. Gage will motor to Lake Oskoboj, Iowa, to spend a month in recreation before going to their new home.

Too Inflammable

A striking statement of the sort that makes one "stop and think" was made recently by an Italian Socialist leader, who, in denying probability of a successful revolution in his country, said:

"The Italians are too inflammable to be good revolutionists."

The thought that anyone or any people could be too "inflammable" for revolution has probably not occurred to the most of us, who, in our experience with "reds" at home and our reports of "reds" in Russia and elsewhere are inclined to the belief that the hotter they are the redder they are and vice versa.

But this "red" leader has a reasonable argument behind his assertion. He said:

"We could stage a revolution here tomorrow; but we cannot depend on the people. There would be sure to be difficulties, lack of work and food at the outset, and if a clever talker came along, he might turn the people against us in ten minutes. We are too inflammable to be good revolutionists."

There is much in that last sentence. "Inflammable" folk are not good revolutionary material, because they will not stick to a revolution and see it through, grimly and steadfastly, to the end.

The French are more successful revolutionists than the Italians because, contrary to the ordinary American notion, they are less temperamental—less swayed by their emotions, and more practical and preserving.

French public men, who are acquainted with the psychology of their neighbor, do not take the present Italian soviet movement very seriously.

American Naval Power

Unless some unforeseen accident should intervene, in 1923 the United States, for the first time in its history, will be the greatest naval power in the world. By that time the program of the Naval Board, drawn up in 1916, will have been completed, giving the nation ten battleships and six battle cruisers, each displacing from 32,500 to 43,500 tons, carrying from eight to twelve 16-inch guns, and making from 21 to 33.5 knots.

A short while ago the First Lord of the Admiralty stated in the House of Commons that the British had not now, and apparently would not have in 1923, any vessels capable of matching these monsters of the sea. True they have under construction a number of battleships of the Hood type, but these do not go into commission before 1924 or 1925. Nor will Japan rival American naval supremacy, for although she is now building a fleet of the most modern warships, in 1923 it will muster only two battle cruisers—the Akagi and the Amagi, and four dreadnaughts—the Negato, the Mutsu, the Koga and the Tosa.

Despite the rapid growth of the sea power of the United States, neither Great Britain nor Japan displays any undue apprehension of our designs. Apparently they are going ahead with their own naval programs without reference to our plans, conscious of the fact that they have nothing to fear from the American people. They remember that the great battle fleet under construction in this country was designed to meet the emergency of the world war, a purely defensive act demanded by a regard to the dictates of common prudence.

Our sea power constitutes a threat to no friendly nation; it will be used for no aggressive purposes. In the war the American navy was at once with the navies of Great Britain and Japan in the defense of international justice and law; should the new vessels now leaving the ways ever have to raise the battle flag it would be only in a like sacred cause.—New York Sun.

POETRY FOR TODAY

THE MOTHER OF MEN
The bravest battle that ever was fought
Shall I tell you where and when?
On the maps of the world you will find it not—
'Twas fought by the mothers of men.

Nay, not with the cannon or battle shot,
With a sword or nobler pen;
Nay, not with eloquent words, or thought
From mouths of wonderful men!

But deep in the walled-up woman's heart—
Of a woman that would not yield,
But bravely, silently, bore her part—
Lo, there is that battlefield!

No marshaling troop, no bivouac song,
No banner to gleam and wave;
But oh, these battles they last so long
From babyhood to the grave.

Yet faithful still as a bridge of stars,
She fights in her walled-up town—
Fights on and on in endless wars,
Then silent unseen, goes down.
Oh, ye with banners and battle shot,
And soldiers to shout and praise,
I tell you the kindest victories fought
Were fought in the silent ways!

Democrats Admit Organization Is Weak And Little Work Done

League Figures in Campaign—
Senatorial Primaries in Five States This Week

BY MARK SULLIVAN
(Copyright 1920)

Chicago, September 13.—The necessity of satisfying the public interest in the campaign fund investigation here in Chicago has prevented your correspondent from during what would have been more interesting and also more important work. In the absence of opportunity to make a personal survey of Maine in anticipation of the election there tomorrow all that can be given is a summary of judgments expressed by local leaders of both parties in various districts of that state. The net of these judgments is decidedly favorable to the Republicans.

The Democrats admit they have but scanty organization and have not done much work. Almost the only Democratic effort has been the presence in the state of national spellbinders from outside. The Republicans on the other hand, are enthusiastic about their organization, and have been busy and effective in every county and town of the state.

The Republicans were careful to put up four strong candidates for Congress, while the Democratic candidates are admitted to be, on the whole, weaker. When the Suffrage amendment was adopted recently, the Republican organization was already mobilized to get their women registered; the Democrats were not.

There is, as an observer in Hancock county expresses it, "An intense feeling of Republicanism in the Republican party, and lukewarmness in the Democratic party."

Leaders on both sides mention the League of Nations. Some Republican leaders say that a few members of their party who believe strongly in the League will vote for the Democrats tomorrow. These same Republicans, they say, will return to the Republican fold at the Presidential election in November, but they will vote with the Democrats tomorrow in the hope of administering a warning to the Republicans.

On the other hand, this is balanced by the admissions from Democratic leaders that a certain number of Democrats of Irish descent who are hostile to the League of Nations will express their hostility by voting the Republican ticket tomorrow.

Attacks which have been made during the last week of the campaign against the Republican candidate for Governor may or may not blur a result which would otherwise have been received as a test of the feeling throughout the country this year.

In the lack of this episode, the Republicans counted on, and some Democrats more or less admitted, a probable Republican majority of from twelve to eighteen thousand, without the women's vote, and of possibly ten thousand more with the women's vote. These figures are large relatively to the results of other recent elections.

Other Events This Week

In 1918 the Republican candidate for Governor won by 6,800 and in 1916 Hughes majority over Wilson was 5,400. In 1916, at the election of Governor, corresponding to tomorrow's election, the Republicans won by 13,600, and then two months later, at the presidential election suffered a reduction of that majority to 5,400. Such a result as is predicted this year would be justly received by politicians everywhere as indicating a marked Republican trend throughout the country.

Other political events this week of national importance will be the primaries in Washington to choose candidates for the succession to Senator Jones, Republican; in New York for the succession of Senator Wadsworth, Republican; in Illinois for the succession to Senator Sherman, Republican; in Vermont, for the succession to Senator Dillingham, Republican, and in Colorado, for the succession to Senator Thomas, Democrat.

Also on Wednesday will be held the Democratic State convention in Connecticut to choose a candidate to make the fight against Senator Brandegee.

OHIO PAINTER AFRAID TO CLIMB UP LADDER

After Trying Everything Batting's Wife Gets Him Tanlac and Troubles End—Gained Fourteen Pounds.

"After the way Tanlac relieved my wife of rheumatism, I decided to try it for my own troubles, and the results with me have been fully as remarkable as in the case of my wife," said Joseph B. Batting, the well-known contracting painter living at 244 Bouquet Ave., Youngstown, Ohio.

"I had been in very bad health for about two years. My stomach was so upset that I couldn't eat a thing without suffering terribly afterwards and in fact, I lost all desire to eat. My nerves got so bad that I was afraid to climb a ladder and I hardly had strength enough to lift a paint bucket. I often had to quit work and go home and lie down, and for the three weeks before I started on Tanlac I hadn't been able to do a stroke of work."

As all the other medicines that I had taken failed to do me any good, I decided to try the medicine that had been such a blessing to my wife, and being to weak to fetch it myself she went down town and bought a bottle.

"I only wish I had taken it long before I did, for it would have saved me untold misery and a pile of money, too. Why the very first bottle seemed to settle my stomach and to give me a new appetite, and now after taking five bottles I am like a brand new man."

"I have a tremendous appetite and never have any trouble with my stomach. I have already gained fourteen pounds in weight and am so much stronger that I can do as much work as any man on the job. Both my wife and I feel ten years younger since Tanlac has gotten rid of our troubles and we think there is no medicine in the world like it."

"We will be glad to tell anyone, either personally or by letter, about the way Tanlac has helped us, and we strongly recommend it to all who may be suffering as we did."

Tanlac is sold in Washington by C. S. Haver, in Lowell by Mason's Drug Store, in Jeffersonville by J. B. Davis, in Octa by I. W. Murphy and in Milfordville, E. L. Ford Sons, Lee Ortmann, Selden. — Advt.

COURT DECLARES BOND FORFEITED

An entry made in the case of Ethel Johnson, alleged delinquent, in Juvenile Court, declares that the bondsmen, Blanche Johnson (the mother) J. D. Post, Joseph Hidy and H. H. Sanderson, failed to produce the child at the time set for hearing, Saturday, and that by reason of their failure to bring the girl into court the bond was forfeited.

The entry declares that the Court finds that the mother should be deprived of the custody of the child, and orders the Sheriff to bring the girl into court that she may be temporarily placed in the care of the Ohio State Board of Charities.

It is further declared in the entry that the Court intends to proceed with the inquiry to produce evidence showing what persons, if any, were involved in contributing to the alleged delinquency of the girl.

A week or ten days ago an action was filed in the common pleas court asking that custody of the child be given to the mother, and after a hearing, this was done.

Immediately after the action in common pleas court the girl, through her "next best friend," Blanche Johnson, her mother, filed action for $10,000 damages against those alleged to have wrongfully detained the girl.

Prosecution represented by Prosecutor H. M. Rankin, E. L. Bush and former Attorney General of Ohio Frank S. Monnett. Defense represented by J. D. Post, Hidy & Sanderson.

ADDING FINAL TOUCHES FOR FALL FESTIVAL

Washington's Fall Festival gets under way Tuesday and will continue without lull in the program until Saturday night.

Monday was the busiest day of preparation and from early in the morning until late in the evening forces of workmen arranged booths, hoisted canvases, strung lights and a thousand other things that must necessarily be done before the crowds arrived in town to see the offerings.

Merchants began to arrange merchandise in their booths Tuesday afternoon.

It was announced that the first big event of the festival will be the Industrial Parade Tuesday evening, following the dedicatory address at the court house and the speech of welcome by Mayor V. J. Dahl.

Local citizens expect the largest crowds frequenting the city in the last year. From the way in which fall festivals in neighboring cities have been attended there is reason to believe that this city will even surpass all former records.

Music is to be a pleasing feature of the program and bands have been engaged to play each day and night.

DELCO PLANT READY TO GO

Barkoot Shows Arrive Sunday Evening and Now Unloading.

The big battery of Delco light outfits assembled on the court house lawn, is now ready for attaching to the large number of booths which line the streets, and rumors that the equipment might not be used were announced as groundless, so that the Delco plant will furnish illumination for the festival as originally planned. The Barkoot Shows, eight car loads, reached this city from Marion, Indiana, Sunday evening, and announcement was made Monday afternoon that they were beginning to unload, delay being occasioned by the absence of Forest Secrets, of Chillicothe, who did not arrive until Monday near the noon hour. These shows will be located on Market street, the vacant lot opposite the Presbyterian church and the merry-go-round and Ferris wheel on other streets.

A big farm exhibit is being arranged under the auspices of the Grange of Fayette county.

PLANE ARRIVES FOR WEEK'S STAY

STORMS CAUSE HEAVY DAMAGE IN THIS COUNTY

Two Twisters Hit Northern and Northeastern Fayette And Leave Trail of Ruin Over Many Farms.

Torrential Rainfall Accompanied By Hail and Wind Leaves Corn in Bad Shape.

Many Buildings Damaged And Wires Badly Tangled As Twisters Sweep.

Accompanied by the darkness of twilight, a great rain, wind, hail and electrical storm swept down over northeastern Fayette county about five o'clock Saturday evening and inflicted thousands of dollars' damage to crops, buildings and other farm property.

Several thousand acres of corn suffered seriously from hail, many of the fields being literally stripped of blades, leaving little more than the corn stalks and ears, and tangled the corn in a hopeless manner.

Two distinct tornadoes, which fortunately passed through districts not thickly inhabited, and which were seen as dark clouds alternately dipping to the earth and rising, cut converging paths across the county, wrecking silos, unroofing barns, damaging several farm houses, leaving telephone wires hopelessly tangled, twisting off and uprooting huge trees, damaging orchards and fences, and causing great alarm to those who saw them or were in the path of the twisters.

The first tornado started in Madison county near South Solon and cut a narrow path across Fayette county just north of Bookwalter, almost in the path of the serious tornado in that district a few years ago.

Silo Wrecked; Barn Damaged.

At the Arch McChesney farm north of Bookwalter the silo was torn down, barn partly unroofed and other damage inflicted. Trees in the path of the cyclone were broken off or uprooted and left twisted in all directions. Corn was twisted and left flat on the ground.

After doing damage at the Oscar Horney premises, 100 yards north of where Wesley Chapel was wrecked by the tornado near Bookwalter a few years ago, the twister swept through comparatively open territory and spent itself in Paint or Madison township.

The Second Twister.

The second tornado started near White Oak, in Madison township and swept due south, barely missing Bloomingburg. At the Robert Jefferson farm two miles west of Madison Mills, the barn was badly damaged and trees and fences broken. For two or three miles it swept through almost open country, striking an occasional tree and uprooting it, leaving corn fields tangled, fences down and telephone wires tangled.

At the Jacob Henkleman farm one-half mile east of Bloomingburg the silo was wrecked, barn partly unroofed, fences thrown down and a telephone line of a score of wires completely severed. This contained several important lead wires. A large hickory tree in the barn lot was twisted off near the ground and thrown in the opposite direction from the way the silo was thrown. Part of the silo roof was carried a half mile.

Sweeping down across the Columbus and Waterloo pikes, the funnel of fury lifted after striking the Bert Wolfe farm, wrecking a shed adjoining a building in which Mr. Wolf and his two sons had taken refuge, ruined fences and uprooted trees. For miles southward the air was full of leaves and other light litter picked up by the funnel. Many persons saw the funnels of the two twisters and were greatly alarmed.

A wide strip of territory in Paint and Madison townships was subjected to a veritable bombardment of large hail stones, and crops were seriously damaged.

A veritable deluge and strong winds added to the havoc inflicted in the path of the storm, and some corn fields are in such condition that it will be almost impossible to harvest them.

In this city there was no storm, except a small one which came up from the southwest, and this, converging with that headed southeast probably caused the cloudburst near Circleville.

HOW ONE WOMAN WAS HELPED

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

May Pass the Critical Period Safely and Comfortably by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Summit, N. J.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during Change of Life and I think it is a good remedy in such a condition. I could not digest my food and had much pain and burning in my stomach after meals. I could not sleep, had backache and worst of all were the hot flashes. I saw in the papers about Vegetable Compound so I tried it. Now I feel all right and can work better. You have my permission to publish this letter."

—VICTORIA KOPPEL, 21 Oak Ridge Ave., Summit, N. J.

If you have warning symptoms such as a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backache, dread of impending evil, timidity, sound in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness, inquietude, and dizziness, get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begin taking the medicine at once. We know it will help you as it did Mrs. Koppel.

HAD TO HOLD TO SIDE OF BED ON RISING MORNINGS

Back hurt so bad couldn't straighten up till he had walked round a while. This farmer's kidneys caused much trouble, but Dreco set them right again.

"Many a morning I've had to hold to the side of the bed in order to get up, then walk round for a while before I could straighten up," said Mr. Albert Logan, who is a farmer living near Athens, Ohio.

"For five years I've been in miserable health. My kidneys were weak and I'd be up five and six times during the night. I had terrible pains in my back, my liver was lazy, and I'd get so dizzy sometimes I'd have to stop a few minutes till it passed off. My stomach was also out of order and often swelled up like an army balloon from the gas in it. I was constipated and so nervous I couldn't sleep much.

"Things are different now, though, for I jump right out of bed into my clothes, and ready for a big breakfast. Don't have to get up during the night a single time; bowels acting regularly no more dizzy spells, and I sleep like a lodge. All this change was brought on by taking Dreco, and I think it the greatest medicine I ever saw."

All druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in Washington, C. H. by Frank Christopher.—Adv.

NEINMEYER HURLS GOLDE VICTORY OVER THE TIGERS

Tigers Go Down Before The Cincinnati Club in Fast Game That Over Seven Hundred People Witnessed.

Hieronemus Delivers Hit That Scores Only Run The Tigers Are Able To Put Across.

Before a crowd of seven hundred fans at Jeffersonville Sunday afternoon the Goldes of Cincinnati defeated the Jeffersonville Tigers in a fast game 4 to 1. The pitching of Neinmeyer of the Goldes, the hurler whom the local club announced had been signed for the Wilmington game featured the contest.

Because the regular diamond was partly inundated it was necessary to play the game at Marshall's Grove, about a quarter of a mile from the town.

The first inning passed off uneventfully without either team putting a tally across. The Goldes won the game in the second when they combined hits with misplays and scored three runs. Manager Heitzler was put out of the game in the ninth for protesting a decision.

Jeffersonville was not able to score until the seven when Hieronemus mus singled with Miller on third base. In the eighth frame the Goldes added a run.

The Tigers will play the Derby Athletic Club at Derby next Sunday afternoon.
